[Intro] Bm G Em A F#m

Bm G Em A F#m

[Verso 1]

Bm G

Soft glow on the city

Em A F#m

She said, "There's no one here who can touch you now"

Bm G

Caught the last flight out of LAX

Em A F#m

With your one-way ticket, New York-bound

[Pré-CORO]

Bm G

Climb so high, don't make a sound

Em A F#m

Don't you forget what goes up must come down

Bm G Em A

Climb so high, tell me how it feels

[CORO]

Bm G

Call me when you're ready to be real

Em A

Black Madonna, hallelujah

F#m Bm G

Makes no difference here, so let's be real

Em A

Black Madonna, my black flower

F#m Bm Em

Nowhere left to run, nowhere left to hide

A Bm Em

You're not havin' fun, I think that you should ride

A Bm G

Call me when you're ready to be real

Em A Bm

Black Madonna, my hallelujah

[Verso 2]

Bm G

On the phone you sound shifty

Em A F#m

You say that you're at home, alone right now

Bm G

But in the background there's a muffled laugh

Em A F#m

As you spin that wool and pull it down

[Pré-CORO]

Bm G

Climb so high, don't hear a sound

Em A F#m

Don't you forget what goes around, comes around

Bm G Em A

Climb so high, tell me how to feel

[CORO]

Bm G

Call me when you're ready to be real

Em A

Black Madonna, hallelujah

F#m Bm G

Makes no difference here, so let's be real

Em A

Black Madonna, my black flower

Bm A

Nowhere left to run, nowhere left to hide

A Bm Em

Says it should be gone, at least it was this time

A Bm G

Call me when you're ready to be real

Em A Bm

Black Madonna, my hallelujah

(Bm G Em A F#m)
