When I was seventeen, it was a very good year;

And soft summer nights;

We'd hide from the lights on the village green

When I was seventeen.

Who lived up the stairs

With perfumed hair that came undone

When I was twenty-one.

Of independent means;

We're ride in limousines that their chauffeurs would drive

In fine old kegs;

From the brim to the dregs, they pour sweet and clear...
