(Intro)

G D C Em D C

G D C Em D C

(Verso)

G

D/F#

I get up every morning, drink coffee alone

Em

C

My house it too quiet; I'm the only one home

G

D/F#

I let the newspapers pile up at the door

Em

C C/B

I can't be bothered; I don't read 'em no more

(PUENTE)

Am

The flowers are blooming, the ones you planted last spring

D

I can't make much sense out of anything

(CORO)

G

If I could kidnap an angel

D

I'd clip off his wings

Em

And bring them to you

C G D C Em D Em

That would fix everything

(Verso)

G

D/F#

I get in the car like I do every day

Em

C C/A

Wondering how in the world did it turn out this way?

(PUENTE)

Am

It's just 'round the corner, turn left and I'm there

D

I'd do anything to be anywhere but here

(CORO)

G

If I could kidnap an angel

D

I'd clip off his wings

Em

And bring them to you

C

That would fix everything

G

If I could kidnap an angel

D

He could teach us to fly

Em

We'd live forever, forever

C

We'd never die

D G (64)-->bass line

If I could kidnap an angel

(SOLO)

Am C G (64)

Am C G D C C/B

Am C G

(Verso)

G

D

Now the parking attendant knows my first name

Em

C

These long green hallways all look the same

G

D/F#

There's four elevators, one goes to that floor

Em

C C/B

I brace myself when I get to the door

(PUENTE)

Am

I close my eyes and take a deep breath

D

Then sit down beside your hospital bed

(CORO)

G

If I could kidnap an angel

D

I'd clip off his wings

Em

And bring them to you

C

That would fix everything

G

If I could kidnap an angel

D

He could teach us to fly

Em

We'd live forever, forever

C

We'd never die

D

G D

If I could kidnap an angel

Em C

If I could kidnap an angel

G

He'd say the word

He'd tear down these walls

D

People laughing like children through these hospital halls

Em

There'd be no more tears

There'd be no more blood

C

There'd be nothing but smiles

G

Nothing but love

D

If I could kidnap an angel...

Em

C G D Em....

If I could kidnap an angel
