Verso 2:

```
    A#m            F#           C#
We're running out of time chasing our lies.
                    F            A#m
Every day a small piece of you dies,
            F#              C#       F
always somebody you're willing to fight to be right.
    A#m           F#            C#
Your lies are bullets, your mouth the dirt
                             F
and no world and anger was ever won.
        A#m          F#           C#
Put down the fight before igniting,
                    F netx time your fighting.
```
