B F# E

Broke into the old apartment

B F# E

This is where we used to live

B F# E

Broken glass, broke and hungry

E

Broken hearts and broken bones

B F# E

This is where we used to live

B F# E

Why did you paint the walls?

B F# E

Why did you clean the floor?

B F# E B

Why did you plaster over the hole I punched in the door?

B F# E

This is where we used to live

B F# E

Why did you keep the mousetrap?

B F# E

Why did you keep the dishrack?

B F#

These things used to be mine

E B

I guess they still are, I want em? back

B F# E

Broke into the old apartment

B F# E B

Forty-two stairs from the street

F# E

Crooked landing, crooked landlord

B

Narrow laneway filled with crooks

F# E

This is where we used to live

B F# E

Why did they pave the lawn?

B F# E

Why did they change the locks?

B F# E B

Why did I have to break in, I only came here to talk

B F# E

This is where we used to live

B F# E

How is the neighbor downstairs?

B F# E

How is her temper this year?

B F# E B

I turned up your TV and stomped on the floor just for fun

B F# E

I know we don't live here anymore

B F# E

We bought an old house on the Danforth

B F# E

She loves me and her body keeps me warm

B F# E

I'm happy there

B

But this is where we used to live

F# E

Broke into the old apartment

B F# E

Tore the phone out of the wall

B F# E

Only memories, fading memories

E

Blending into dull tableaux

B F# E I want them back
