A C#7
 a town of disrespect
 D
 the trains are wrecked
 A
 the night is younger then us
 B7 E
 nowhere is anywhere else
 you keep to yourself
 D A
 stirring the dregs where i have layed
 F E
 the exit signs are flashing
 A D A
 dead ends they won't come to life anymore i pledge the rest
 i should have guessed
 your love was hanging by threads tongues tied under the moon, my love is a room of broken bottles and tangled webs

the misers wind their minds like clocks that grind their gears on and on
and if its meant
some accident
some coincidence
crumbs fall out of the sky when you wander by
the dust clouds blow
nobody's home
oh won't you lay my bags
upon on the funeral fire and sing it again harmonica solo
F E
oh won't you lay my bags
A D Upon on the funeral fire and sing it again
