and girls will fall inlove with you if you can play their stuff. This is also my first tab and since it took me long enough to figure out how to type this out I didn't do the song not for note...I just told you where to repeat and you will have to listen to the song for the subtle differences. This is a guideline. Please email me if you notice any mistakes. Enjoy

INTRO - there are some bends listen to the song the second time through you miss the last 8 notes

Verso - Plays the first chord but then just hammers on the other ones sounds pretty cool. Listen to the song for timing. The second two riffs are played over the chords in the second Verso.

before PUENTE riff, on the last repition you hold some notes listen to the song this is just a guideline
